Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

The Gospel of this Sunday, Matthew (Mt 14:13-21), recalls the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves that Jesus performed in a deserted place.

He ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over - twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children. (Matthew 14:19-21)

Through the Scriptures, we come to know that Jesus always shows his love for us people in every circumstance of life. He cured all kind of diseases - fevers, blood disorders, paralysis, blindness, deaf and dumb, leprosy. He drove away demons from possessed persons. He raised the dead. Today's Gospel tells us one more miracle of Jesus - recalls the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves to feed thousands of people in the wilderness.

Many scripture commentators pointed out that this miracle foretells the Eucharist that Jesus instituted on the night before his passion.

"While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and giving it to his disciples said, 'Take and eat; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, 'Drink from it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins.' (Matthew 26: 26-28)

Indeed, the Institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper was the most precious gift that Jesus left us - far greater than multiplying five loaves and two fish to feed five thousand men in the wilderness. The Eucharist is Jesus' greatest gift to us - a treasure whose value cannot be measured. For this is the Flesh and Blood of God, the food that gives everlasting life to those who believe and receive it.

Jesus, for loving mankind, has given himself to us. How do we respond to his love? Are we filled with joy when we receive Jesus in the Eucharist? Do we feel worthy to welcome Jesus in this sacrament? Is our life always a song of praise to God's love?

May God have mercy on us all!

Remember in Your Prayers

ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father,

In the face of confusion and concern
impart to us the calm of Your presence.

In You allow us to find hope and healing.

Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.

Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.

Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.

Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love.

Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.

Amen

CYCLES OF FAITH

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Many people in our world are hungry and thirsty. This hunger and thirst go well beyond physical needs for food, security, and shelter. Many are emotionally and spiritually parched, too. Behind every act of violence is a soul who hungers. People live with relationships that actually starve them. They are abused, exploited, disrespected, laughed at, and marginalized. There is a lot of confusion and inner pain that needs to be acknowledged and expressed. We all long to be understood and loved, even when our inner demons or who I am make it difficult to be. Do you live with inner confusion and pain? Folks often wander through life without any real direction or purpose and take their cues from what seems satisfying or popular at the moment. The deeper dots of our lives can easily remain unconnected, and we can find ourselves without grounding, purpose, or real happiness. Life becomes shallow and without real purpose as we hunger and thirst for an ultimate love.

It's easier to see the physical hungers and thirsts. We try to respond to these as best we can. Much more needs to be done. With all that God's earth can provide, nobody ought to face sleep at night with a belly that's empty. It's sinful. It's unjust. But isn't all hunger unjust? It doesn't need to be, and it should not be. Just as no one ought to be physically hungry and thirsty, there is really no need to be emotionally or spiritually deficient either. If we have more privileges at our fingertips, it is easier to try to satisfy our emotional and spiritual hungers and thirst by acting on impulse or self-indulgence, carelessly following passions, or by seeking self-destructive ways to dull the ache of emptiness.

Folks need to know where to look for nourishment and need the right friends to help them find it. We may not think that we have enough to respond to and to satisfy all of the needs, but we do. It doesn't take much. Five loaves and two fish provided for a huge crowd. With God, all things are possible. Our faith provides the direction for where God's children must go to find the nourishment they seek. It also tells us how to structure life so that justice and equity can be a reality for all. It also tells us how to respond to pain, sinfulness, and confusion. Come to the water and then help another get there.
